OverLand Equipment: Timeless Style for Today's Active Woman

OverLand Equipment prides itself in making classic bags the way things used to be made—with integrity, craftsmanship and durability. It's the very thing that made us famous. Every bag is carefully built with the same design precision of a long-lasting outdoor bag proven to stand the test of time.

We never cut corners on quality, materials or style. Each of our bags are carefully engineered to suit the active lifestyle of today's woman. Whether it's taking a day hike, walking the dog, commuting to work, or just running errands around town, every OverLand Equipment bag is made to go the distance with you.

All OverLand Equipment bags come with a lot of extra features like a fleece-lined cell phone pocket, zippered security pockets, multiple organization pockets, built-in pockets for water bottles, interior key clips and adjustable straps. We listen to the needs of our customers and make the most functional, durable, versatile, well-crafted bags in the market.

You might own another bag, but your OverLand Equipment bag is the one you use.

At the bottom of each page is a small photo of each product with fabric color, product number and a fabric lining swatch.

Introducing the Tiburon Collection

Stylish, lightweight, and made with the craftsmanship OverLand Equipment is famous for, the Tiburon Collection bags are city bags that double as weekend excursion bags. But don't let the beautiful sheen or lightweight fabric fool you, these are durable bags built for the active woman.

Belvedere

Madera

Urban Pack

These stylish bags are made with waterproof lightweight fabric that offers a natural sheen and soft pliable hand. This design is fast becoming the new standard for lifestyle and travel bags because even when completely filled they remain light and comfortable to carry.

Each Tiburon Collection bag is lined with custom-printed dotted fabric, adjustable webbing straps, and magnetic closures to keep contents secure. The internal key clip is metal making misplaced keys a thing of the past. We've also added metal zipper pulls and a stylish metal OverLand Equipment logo to the exterior.

The Madera has a wave design pocket so you can easily access contents without fumbling around. It also has a built-in padded tablet pocket.

The Urban Pack is more than a backpack—it's a pack, wallet and purse all in one.

The Belvedere, Madera, and Urban Pack have extra security features integrated in their design including a tailored 'pocket square' cell phone holder and extra internal zippered pockets to keep belongings safe and uber organized.

The Belvedere features a unique and angled design that has three distinct areas for maximum organization and two side pockets for water bottles. It also features a zippered padded pocket made just for your tablet.

OverLand Equipment Color Collections

COLLECTION 1: The Tiburon Collection

The Tiburon Collection bags are the perfect mix of city bag and weekend excursion bag. Lightweight and waterproof, they are made of 500D nylon and lined with a durable 50D polyester. The rich deep colors allow these bags to be worn as city bags during the day, and the beautiful sheen of the fabric makes them fashionable enough for a night on the town. And of course they are made like all OverLand Equipment bags—durable, well made, and built to last.

COLORS

	BLACK
	BLUE SLATE
	ROSEWOOD

COLLECTION 3: Earthtones

This collection is made up of the natural colors that represent earth, sky, and water. Start out by using black as the base color, then add rich sandalwood brown, green moss, blue denim, and blue-violet. This soothing color selection will be popular season after season.

COLORS

	SANDALWOOD
	MOSS
	DENIM
	BLUE VIOLET

COLLECTION 2: Black, Blackberry, Wheat, Red Violet

Black, blackberry and wheat-colored bags are at the core of this collection. Add a 'pop color' such as red violet and you have a classic collection of attention-getting bags with just the right mix of dark and light.

COLORS

	WHEAT
